

OSTEOSTRONG SESSION COACH

The OsteoStrong Lead Session Coach must have a strong devotion to promoting health and wellness in our community. He/She will contribute to supporting a member-focused, energetic and positive environment.

Reports To: Lead Session Coach and Center Manager

Employment Status: Part or Full Time

The ideal candidate has the following skills and experience:

- Strong people skills. Ability to make strong relationships with prospects and members to drive retention.
- Ability to learn and absorb the science and research behind OsteoStrong and convey that information to prospects, members and session coaches proficiently and consistently.
- Strong communication skills
- Proactive and takes initiative
- Ability to work well with others and take direction.
- Background and/or strong interest in health and human performance, health and wellness and other human sciences a plus

Key Responsibilities

SESSION COACH

- Educate on OsteoStrong science and research and become proficient in educating members and potential referral sources.
- Educate on current center modalities and products and able to proficiently educate others and potential referral sources.
- Train and educate new session coaches
- Self initiate continued education on OsteoStrong related science and provided modalities
- Contribute to a strong team working environment
- Contribute to a fun, member-focused, proactive, sales-driven culture

OPERATIONS

- Perform daily staff checklist and complete by end of day
- Assist in checking clients into IGo and current scheduler
- Assist with client booking requests and issues
- Perform scheduled center cleaning and daily tasks